

Lenore Vizzone

Lenore has been a member of the K9 OTC since 1998, where she has served two terms as President. She is currently a member of the Training Committee and teaches classes for K9 as well as other clubs. Her professional career in dogs started in 1974 with a dog grooming salon "Lenore's Canine Clippery". She began showing professionally in breed competition in 1984, and then began to show in competition obedience in 1989 with her first collie, Gus. She has been invited two years in a row to the National Obedience Invitational, and is still currently active showing obedience dogs.

She has put numerous titles on her dogs, including, Obedience, Rally and Conformation in both AKC, UKC and CDSP. She is also currently working on herding and tracking titles. She has over 43 years collective experience in both training and handling dogs. She enjoys sharing her knowledge with novice trainers and sincerely tries her best to help them attain their personal goals with their own dogs. Her training philosophy is to find the best way to HAVE FUN while teaching your dog what he/she needs to know in order to go into the competition ring and do well.
